PASSAGE-I

It has been brought to the notice of the Government by certain Members of Parliament that instances have occurred in which Members of Legislatures have // not been accorded by Government officers the consideration and regard which their position in the public life of the country requires. Government of India had // no doubt that, lapses, if any, in this respect cannot be intentioned and that there is no desire to be discourteous or rude. Nevertheless, Government /// of India would like to remind all officers that due courtesy and regard to the representatives of the people are desirable in the larger interests 1 of the country. The Members of Parliament have important functions to perform under the Constitution and it should be the endeavor of every officer to / help them to the extent possible in the discharge of their functions. In cases, however, when officers are unable to accede to the request or // suggestions of Members of Parliament the reasons for the officer's inability to do so should be courteously explained to them. For purpose of interview, Members /// of Parliament should be given preference over the visitors, and in the very rare cases where an officer is unable to see a Member of 2 Parliament at a time about which he had no previous notice, the position should be politely explained to the Member and another appointment fixed in / consultation with him. The same courtesy and regard should be shown to Members of Legislatures attending public functions where, in particular, seat befitting their position // should be reserved for them.

Table of Precedence, with respect to the rank and precedence of the persons names therein which has been approved by /// the President, is published for general information.
