PASSAGE-II

The age prescribed for retirement on superannuation is 60 years for all Government servants. Retirement is effective from the afternoon of the last day of the month in which age / of superannuation is attained. An employee whose birth date is the first of the month shall retire on the afternoon of the last day of the preceding month. The day // on which a Government servant was absent from duty on leave or otherwise or was under suspension, the day of retirement or death shall be part of leave or suspension. ///

The Government servant retiring on superannuation should formally relinquish charge of office on the afternoon of that day itself even if it happens to be closed holiday. The cash, stores, 1 etc., may be made over by the retiring officer on the close of the previous working day. The actual relinquishment of charge of office shall be made in the prescribed / form on the last day of service for which the physical presence of the officer in the office need not be insisted.

Any claim for Pension, Gratuity, Family Pension benefits // will be regulated on the basis of the rules in force on the date on which the employee ceases to be in service due to retirement or death. A Government /// servant is not eligible for two pensions in the same service or post at the same time or by the same continuous service. A pensioner receiving superannuation or retiring pension 2 and re-employed subsequently is not eligible for a separate pension and gratuity for the period of his re-employment.

Future good conduct is an implied condition for every grant of pension / and its continuance. If the pensioner is convicted for a serious crime or is found guilty of grave misconduct, the whole or part of the pension may be withheld or // withdrawn by a written order of the appointing authority, whether permanently or for a specific period.

The President has the right to withhold a pension or gratuity or both or /// withdraw a pension or part thereof but the pension shall not be reduced below the minimum pension. He can also order recovery from a pension or gratuity of the whole 3 or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Government. (370 Words)
