3. RESERVATION OF VACANCIES

- (I) The reservation for Ex-servicemen is horizontal in nature.
- (II) Ten per cent of the vacancies in the posts up to of the level of the Assistant Commandant in all para-military forces;
- (III) Ten per cent of the vacancies in Group C posts; and
- (IV) Twenty per cent of the vacancies in Group D posts.

The vacancies mentioned above includes permanent vacancies filled initially on a temporary basis and temporary vacancies which are likely to be made permanent or are likely to continue for three months and more, to be filled by direct recruitment in any year shall be reserved for being filled by ex-servicemen.

The Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Class Candidates selected against the vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen shall be adjusted against vacancies reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes, respectively; provided that if a Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribe or the Other Backward Class ex-serviceman is selected against the vacancy reserved for Ex-Servicemen and vacancy reserved for the Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribe or the Other Backward Class, as the case may be, is not available to adjust such ex-servicemen, he shall be adjusted in future against the next available vacancy reserved for the Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribe or the Other Backward Class, as the case may be.

5. CARRY FORWARD OF VACANCIES

In case of recruitment to the vacancy reserved for Ex-servicemen in the Central Para Military Forces, the reserved vacancy remained unfilled due to non-availability of eligible or qualified candidates, the same shall be filled by candidates from non-ex-servicemen category.

In case a number of vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen in Group 'C' and 'D' in Central Civil Services are not filled by candidates who are ex-servicemen, the number of vacancies reserved for ex-servicemen can be added to the number of vacancies falling to the share of ex-servicemen in the next recruitment year. This of course is without disturbing the general policy of reservation for other categories for whom reservation is available and subject to the condition that upper ceiling of 50% for reservation is adhered to. In the next recruitment year, if suitable ex-servicemen are also not available, the employer shall fill up the vacancy by appointment of a candidate, other than an ex-serviceman. The reservation shall be carried forward for a further period up to two recruitment years and thereafter the reservation shall lapse. In this connection it is pertinent to mention that the reservation for Ex-servicemen is horizontal in nature and, as such, even if the reserved vacancies for them are filled up by appointment of candidates other than the Ex-servicemen, carry-forward for a period of two years of vacancies is possible because they are to be adjusted against their respective categories.

The pro-forma of the certificate (No Objection Certificate), as issued by the competent authority, to be submitted along with the application form is given in Annexure-1. Since the appointment of such a candidate is subject to his submitting documentary evidence that he has been duly released/retired/discharged from the Armed Forces and qualified as an Ex-Serviceman, such a candidate shall be required to submit along with his application an undertaking in the format as mentioned in Annexure-2.

Those ex-servicemen who have already secured regular employment under the Central Government in civil post would be permitted the benefit of age relaxation as admissible for ex-servicemen for securing another employment in any higher post or service under the Central Government irrespective of any Group/ post. However, such candidates will not be eligible for the benefit of reservation, if any, for ex-servicemen in Central Government.

If an ex-serviceman applies for various vacancies before joining any civil employment, he/she can avail of the benefit of reservation as ex-serviceman for any subsequent employment. However, to avail of this benefit, an ex-serviceman as soon as he/she joins any civil employment, should give self-declaration/undertaking to the concerned employer about the date-wise details of application for various vacancies for which he/she had applied for before joining the initial civil employment. Further, this benefit would be available only in respect of vacancies which are filled on direct recruitment and wherever reservation is applicable to the ex-servicemen. However, application for any vacancy submitted after joining the civil post/service shall not be treated as an application under ex-serviceman quota.

To,

Sir,

With reference to the subject and letter number cited above, I am directed to inform you that the extant Mizoram Ex-servicemen (Re-employment in Civil Posts) Rules, 2019 do not contain any provisions permitting repeated availment of ex-servicemen quota after entry into a civil post. In such circumstances, mere silence of the rules cannot safely be construed as a positive authorization for second use of the quota. The more sustainable legal view, therefore, is that repeat availment cannot be treated as permissible unless the relevant rules expressly provide for it.

Yours faithfully,
