

Syllabus for General / Technical Competitive Examination for recruitment of Group B Non-Gazetted posts
(This Syllabus is, therefore, meant for Assistant Jailor)

I. General Competitive Examination

General Competitive Examination will be held when recruitment for a certain post does not have a specific guideline or when it does not require specific subject wise specification but can be written by any graduate from a recognised university. As far as practicable the questions will be of multiple choice (objective type).

The examination will comprise of the following papers:

(1) General English	:	100 Marks
(2) General Studies Paper - I (Objective Type)	:	150 Marks
(3) General Studies Paper - II (Objective Type)	:	150 Marks
Total	:	400 Marks

DETAILS OF SYLLABUS :

(1) General English : 100 Marks

a) Essay Writing	:	20 Marks
b) Précis Writing	:	10 Marks
c) Letter Writing	:	10 Marks
d) Idioms & Phrases	:	16 Marks
e) Expansion of passages	:	10 Marks
f) Comprehension of given passages	:	10 Marks
g) Grammar
Parts of Speech : Nouns, Adjective, Verb, Adverb, Preposition, etc.	:	14 Marks
h) Correct usage and vocabularies	:	10 Marks

(2) General Studies Paper - I

OBJECTIVE TYPE : 150 Marks

A. History of Modern India and Cultures from about the middle of 19th Century : 60 marks

- (a) British economic policies and their impact. Commercialisation of Agriculture, Rural Indebtedness, Growth of Agricultural Labour. Destruction of Cottage (Handloom & Handicraft) Industries. Growth of Modern Industries. Rise of a Capitalist Class.
- (b) Growth and Development of Education. Activities of the Christian Missionaries. Efforts at regeneration of Indian Society by Social Reformers.
- (c) Revolt of 1857. First War of India Independence and its impact. Civil Rebellions and peasant movements with special reference to Indigo Revolt, Deccan Riots, Santal Rebellion and Moplah Uprising.
- (d) Rise and Growth of Indian National Movement. Formation of various Associations. The early nationalists and militant nationalists. Rise and Growth of communalism. Emergence of Gandhi in Indian politics and his techniques of mass mobilisation. Trade Union and peasant movements, State(s) people movements, rise and growth of Left-wing within the Congress, Socialists and Communists. Attitude of the Congress to Constitutional changes 1909-1935. World War II and Indian Political Development. Indian National Army. The Partition of India and Achievement of Freedom.

B. Indian Polity : 30 Marks

- (a) The structure - Indian Constitution, Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles, Emergency Provisions
 Union Government - President, Parliament, Prime Minister, Cabinet
 Indian Judiciary - Supreme Court, High Court, Judicial Review, PIL
 Indian Federalism - Centre State Relation, Tension Areas.
- (b) Working of democracy - Major political parties in India, Main features of party system in India, Election Commission of India.
 Major Issues in Indian Polity - Politics of regionalism and communalism, Insurgency problems
 National Commissions - Working of the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), National Commission for Minorities, the National Commission for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and the National Commission for Women.
 State Government - Role of the Governor, Powers and functions of the Chief Minister, Panchayati Raj Institutions. 74th Constitutional Amendment

C. Indian Economy : 30 Marks

- (a) The Indian Economy: Guiding principles of Indian economic policy- Planned growth and distributive justice - Poverty alleviation. Agriculture and industrial sectors- Public and private sectors. National income - its sectoral and regional distribution.
- (b) Monetary and credit trends and policy- Banking and other financial institutions.
- (c) Foreign trade and the balance of payments.
- (d) Indian Planning: Objectives, strategy, experience and problems.

D. Geography of India : 30 Marks

Physical Aspects - Himalayan Range, Gangetic Plain, Peninsular India, Monsoon, Drought and Flood prone areas.

Human Aspects - Ethnic/racial diversities; tribal areas and their problems; role of language, religion and culture in the formation of regions; historical perspectives and unity and diversity; population distribution, density, and growth, population problems and policies.

Agriculture – The infrastructure, land holdings, consolidation and land reforms; improvement of agriculture through modern technology. Dry-zone agriculture and agricultural land use policy.

Industry – History of industrial development, factors of localization; study of mineral based, agro-based and forest based industries, industrial decentralization and industrial policy; industrial complexes and industrial regionalization, identification of backward areas and rural industrialization.

(3) General Studies Paper - II*OBJECTIVE TYPE : 150 Marks*A. Current Events and General Knowledge : 50 Marks*B. The role and impact of science and technology in the development of India. : 30 Marks

In the part relating to the role and impact of science and technology in the development of India, questions will be asked to test the candidate's awareness of the role and impact of science and technology in India, emphasis will be on applied aspects. It will also include general knowledge relating to science, inventions and discoveries, terminologies, etc.

C. History, Cultural Heritage and Traditional Practices of Mizoram : 30 Marks

History, Cultural Heritage and Traditional Practices and General Knowledge about Mizoram will include broad history of Mizoram including pre and post advent of the British, Colonial Era, the Lushai Chiefs, Political upheavals, famines, socio-economic and political events after independence. Cultural and traditional practices, customary laws and practices including folk lore and songs, dances and festivals.

D. Simple Arithmetic : 20 Marks

Simple Arithmetic will include Averages, Profit & Loss, Simple Interest, Fractions & Decimals, Time & Distance, Simple Geometry, Mensuration, Simple Statistics, Simplification, Square Roots.

E. Aptitude Test : 20 Marks

(a) Numerical And Figurework Tests: (4 Marks)

These tests are reflections of fluency with numbers and calculations. It shows how easily a person can think with numbers. The subject will be given a series of numbers. His/Her task is to see how the numbers go together to form a relationship with each other. He/She has to choose a number which would go next in the series.

(b) Verbal Analysis And Vocabulary Tests: (6 Marks)

These tests measure the degree of comfort and fluency with the English language. These tests will measure how a person will reason with words. The subject will be given questions with alternative answers, that will reflect his/her command of the rule and use of English language.

(c) Visual And Spatial/3-D Ability Tests: (4 Marks)

These tests are used to measure perceptual speed and acuity. The subject will be shown pictures where he/she is asked to identify the odd one out; or which comes next in the sequence or explores how easily he/she can see and turn around objects in space.

(d) Abstract Reasoning Tests: (6 Marks)

This test measures the ability to analyse information and solve problems on a complex, thought based level. It measures a person's ability to quickly identify patterns, logical rules and trends in new data, integrate this information, and apply it to solve problems.

II. Technical Competitive Examination

Technical Competitive Examinations will be held when the relevant Recruitment Rules/Service Rules do not specify the mode on how an examination will be conducted but invites an application from such persons who possess either a Graduate or Post Graduation Degree on a specific subject from a recognised university as specified in the relevant Recruitment Rules. As far as practicable the questions will be of multiple choice (objective type).

The examination will comprise of the following papers:

(1) General English	:	100 Marks
(2) Technical Subject Paper - I (Objective Type)	:	150 Marks
(3) Technical Subject Paper - II (Objective Type)
(A) Technical	:	130 Marks
(B) Aptitude Test	:	20 Marks
Total	:	400 Marks

The detailed syllabus in General English and Aptitude Test will be similar to that of the General Competitive Examination. The syllabus of technical paper and the standard will be based on the Recruitment Rules/Service Rules of the said post. The marks carried by the two papers will be 150 marks each and the question will be of multiple choice objective type question.